(San Diego, CA) The San Diego Business Journal (www.sdbj.com) today published its 2009 List of The 100 Fastest Growing Privately Held Companies, with Component Surfaces, Inc. making the list for the first time in the No. 17 position. The list is based on overall revenue growth from 2006 to 2009.

"We are proud to be included on this list primarily because of what revenue growth says about a company's contribution to its industry and the economy in general," said President David Shields. "This is a direct result of the success of our customers, the dedicated efforts of our employees and the strong support of our suppliers. We would also like to offer sincere congratulations to our customer Torrey Hills Technologies (www.torreyhillstech.com) for their success and placement at No. 2 on this 2009 list."
